DATE: 8 Dec.

FROM : V.P.

1. The first copy are notes in Col. Miller's handwriting, and are from his notebook, As you can see, they are probably questions asked by Admiral Conolly at 1:30 p.m. on 23 November.

2. The second are notes in pencil, not in the handwriting of Cols. Miller or Lane, or of Mr. McGruder. These notes carried no dates or titles.

3. You will see that Admiral Conolly's questions are dated at a much later date than the material I sent you last week, which came into the office after the formal briefing of the top echelon.

✓ Research CIA. Do we do this for everybody?

Enemies of economy within each (meaning CIA, Army, Navy, State, Air) produce poor product. Mission not clearly defined. Improper organization, empire building, physical setup, supply, poor requirements for collection and evaluation, duplication and overlap, lack of coordination and jealousy. How Correct?
